Setting up your iPad with wireless internet connection at home

Turn on your iPad and navigate to the Home Screen

Click on settings
Click on Wi-Fi

Find your wireless network in the list under “Choose a Network”

Enter the password to connect to your wireless router.
Contact your Internet Service Provider (ISP) if you are unsure about your password. (Passwords can often be found attached to your wireless router).

Congratulations your iPad is now wirelessly connected to the Internet.