

Respect

everyone has the right to be respected

*showing empathy

- understanding how others feel, having compassion
- caring for others, being kind, developing friendships
- acceptance of difference,
- respect for other races/religions/cultures/preferences
- positive gender relationships

*respectful communication

- being polite, speaking nicely to my teachers and others, using manners and social conventions
- considering friends and classmates
- listening to others and sharing

*respect for property

- looking after your own and others' belongings
- caring for school, home and community property
- caring for the environment

